

Medical Interventions for Law Enforcement

This course is open to all sworn or non-sworn Law Enforcement staff, medical first responders, or related public service agency personnel.

Presented through a combination of classroom lecture and practical exercises, this 2-hour course will provide personnel with principles and techniques that will help them in daily patrol activities. Legal duties regarding handling suspects/arrestees in times of physical distress with an emphasis on recognition of medical emergencies and proper response to them. Topics covered will include:

Deliberate Indifference	Estelle Decision
Constitutional Law	Idaho Codes
Medical emergencies	Likely symptoms encountered
Suicidal suspects	Emergency situations

This is one of the popular classes for both new patrol staff, and those that have been working for many years. Please make plans to attend.
