

De-escalation and Active Shooter Response

This course is open to all sworn or non-sworn City Government and Law Enforcement personnel.

Presented through a combination of classroom lecture and PowerPoint presentation, this 2-hour course will provide students with principles and techniques that will help them better respond to and handle tense interactions during active shooter scenarios to include de-escalation techniques when deadly force response is not warranted. Topics covered will include:

Four-step communication	Personnel safety
Uninvolved bystanders	Video recording devices
Mental illness factors	Time vs need for action
Idaho Code reference firearms/self-protection

Please make plans to attend the training at the below location.
