

Officer Survival: A Winning Mindset for Detention

This course is open to all sworn or non-sworn Law Enforcement personnel.

This newly updated POST certified class includes updated suggestions for all line to command level staff members.

Presented through a combination of classroom lecture and practical exercises, this 2-hour course will provide students with principles and techniques that will help them better handle tense interactions with the public, focusing on both their survival mindset and effective understanding of threats that require both quick communication and those allowing for de-escalation techniques. Topics covered will include:

Winner's Mindset	Officer safety
Uninvolved bystanders	Video recording devices
Stages of readiness	Time vs need for action
Graham vs. Conner review
